

I am opposed to the Consumer Bankers Association petition that would impose the "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana telephone consumers. I view all telephone solicitation as an unwelcome nuisance, and want to continue to experience the freedom that has resulted from the do not call list.